

XM radio is a great asset to those who can not get the services provided to them through other standards. Having limited email, no cable, no news paper, and limited phone (no long distance) I believe that XM is a valuable subject of news, music, and culture for everyone to listen to and enjoy.

Thanks